

Listening

Listening with full attention to understand. The experience is all about the other person.

Inquiring

Asking useful questions to stimulate another person's thinking and help elicit new actions, goals or solutions.

Giving Feedback

Providing objective information about past behavior to improve performance in the future.

Sharing

Providing personal thoughts and advice relevant to the other person's development.

Foundational Coaching Skills